Reports 2 Men Overdue on Soviet Visit

BATH, Me., Sept. 16 (UPI)

A Maine mother of three has disclosed that her husband and an Air Force veteran friend are overdue on a visit to Russia. Mrs. Rena Bennett of Bath, now staying with her father, said that her husband Harvey and Mark Kaminsky of Ann Arbor, Mich., were due back in New York Sept. 1.

"I don't know what's happened to them. I am very much concerned," the twenty-six-year-old woman said. Mr. Bennett also is twenty-six and Mr. Kaminsky is twenty-seven, she said.

The two men entered the Soviet Union from Helsinki, Finland, on July 27. Mrs. Bennett said she last heard from her husband in a letter dated Aug. 19 and postmarked Vinnitsa, Russia.

In the letter, she said, her husband wrote of having "a good time" but was "looking forward to coming home."

Mr. Bennett, now unemployed, is a graduate of the University of California, where he majored in Russian studies. Mrs. Bennett said he planned to look for a job upon his return, possibly as a teacher.

Mrs. Bennett reported that the government so far has been unable to learn the whereabouts of the missing men, who, she said entered Russia as tourists in a trip arranged by Amerpol Enterprises in Detroit.
